

Clover is a little stool bound to bring luck, good fortune and prosperity to the design voyeur. The unique ability to stack this piece has shaped the seat and spawn its four leaf idenity. Made from 100% plantation plywood sourced locally, you can breath easy that mother earth is looked after. Coming in two heights 42 for adults and 30 for children, it can be assembled or disassembled at a moment's notice to be conveniently tucked away. Luck has nothing to do with good design with Clover cleverly bridging this divide.
