

Developed for a children's play area of Australia's largest regional art gallery, this practical seating solution has been designed with children as the primary focus. Interaction is encouraged by the interlocking design that can be arranged by children to create a stepped seating landscape and create a sculptural union between form and function. Covered in vinyl to make cleaning simple and practical, this exciting range with its softly curved edges is ideal for any space that encourages children to freely engage in play and recreational activities.

